

ALU Control

Here we generate the signals to direct the ALU to carry out the required operations for the current instruction depending on what state we're in, and sometimes also depending on status flags.

